PRACTICE AREA SPOTLIGHT FINE ART LAW

One of our practice areas is fine art law - the law governing transactions and disputes in the world of fine art. We have represented galleries and art purchasers alike in matters including authenticity, copyright, fair use, commercial leases, vendor disputes, purchase and sale agreements, financial fraud matters, and other serious and complex issues in the world of fine art.

In such matters, we apply the same thoughtful, strategic approach as with our business litigation, executive-level employment matters, and financial fraud disputes. The art industry is filled with nuance and complexity, and we assist our clients work through these matters and towards a positive result.
